How do you want to live it — by pursuing your dreams regardless of the outcome — or tamping down your expectations and risk of disappointment? Pope John XXIII is quoted as saying, “Consult not your fears but your hopes and your dreams. Think not about your frustrations, but about your unfulfilled potential.

As you were growing up, you were empowered to pursue any career you dreamed. As time went by, that freedom was replaced with a choice. The choice was to either live the life you chose or let life decide for you. Unfortunately, too many of us settled for the latter and allowed life to dictate the path without our input.
